The marriage of Miss Edna Josephine Kaldenbach, daughter of Mrs. Rose Kaldenbach, and Mr. George Edward Noyes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Noyes, took place yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at the First Presbyterian Church, the Rev. John B. Clark, pastor of the church, performing the ceremony in the presence of the immediate family.

The bride wore a smart traveling gown of dark blue taffeta, with a becoming leghorn hat, with blue streamers and trimmed with pink roses. Her costume was completed by a corsage bouquet of sweet peas and lilies of the valley.

Miss Lola Wilson, as her only attendant, was in a blue taffeta gown combined with georgette crepe worn with a pink georgette crepe hat trimmed with pink roses. She also wore pink shoes. Mr. Milton T. Noyes was his brother's best man. Mr. and Mrs. Noyes left immediately after the ceremony for a wedding trip to Norfolk and New York, making the trip by water. They will be at home after June 15 at 1108 5th street northeast.

A pretty wedding took place at Grace Episcopal Church, in Woodside, Md., at 5:30 o'clock last evening, when Miss Grace Elizabeth Birgfeld, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Birgfeld, became the bride of Mr. Robert Murphy. The church was elaborately decorated with palms, orange blossoms, daisies and roses. Rev. George McCraw performed the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gown in white lace over white satin, made with a long train. Her tulle veil was caught with pearls and orange blossoms, and her only ornament was a pearl necklace, the gift of the bridegroom. She carried a shower of lilies of the valley, orchids and sweet peas.

Miss Helen Montgomery was the maid of honor, and wore a gown of white organdy and flowered pink voile, and a pink tulle cap. Her bouquet was of white sweet peas. Miss Irene Brown of Newport, Pa., and Miss Susie Murphy were the bridesmaids. Their gowns were of white organdy, with blue satin jackets. They wore pink tulle caps and carried sweet peas.

Mr. Frank Birgfeld, brother of the bride, acted as best man. Messrs. Edgar Thompson and Charles R. Meyers of Rockville, Frank Ray of Linden and Fred Dorwart of Harrisburg, Pa., were ushers.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride, Twin Oaks, where the decorations were spring flowers.

Later in the evening the young couple left for an extended wedding trip, the bride wearing a dark blue silk frock, a golden colored sport coat, and a large blue hat trimmed with gold flowers. Upon their return they will reside at Twin Oaks, Linden.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Peeble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Deeble, and Mr. Ivon William Phillips of Washington took place at 11:45 o'clock this morning at St. Thomas Church, near Dupont Circle, the Rev. Dr. C. Ernest Smith officiating. Only a small party of relatives witnessed the ceremony, and there were no attendants.

The bride wore a dark blue taffeta semi-train gown, and a modish hat to correspond. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Phillips left for a short wedding journey, which will end at Springfield, Mass., where Mr. Phillips is engaged on work for the interstate commerce commission.

Miss Agnes Shackelford and her fiance, Mr. Robert Johnson, were the guests of honor at a dinner given last evening at the Chevy Chase Club by (Continued on Ninth Page.)

LET the man who owns a Palm Beach Suit beware. He's going to find it easy this summer to sacrifice smartness to comfort. Yet not necessarily. For a Palm Beach Suit is friendly toward careful laundering, and needs only occasionally to renew acquaintance with soaps and irons to join dressiness to comfort.

Don't let the first continued heated spell catch you and your Palm Beach Suit napping.
